TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

George Bennis, a member of the Feng Shui network, has demonstrated his skill and enthusiasm for Feng Shui on a number of occasions.

As a fellow teacher of Feng Shui and student of Master Joseph Yu, George and I have discussed our cases a number of times and George has always shown his innovative and educated approach to a most complex and intricate subject.

I have witnessed how George's students ask well informed questions in our discussion group, testament to the knowledge they have learned from George.

To practice traditional Feng Shui requires a person of great dedication. I recommend George for any project requiring a highly skilled and professional approach to the art of traditional Feng Shui.

If you have any further enquiries don't hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely,
